

ROLE TITLE: Health & Safety Co-ordinator

THE COMPANY

When it comes to designing, manufacturing and distributing party products, Amscan leads the way. With over 70 years' experience we bring exciting, innovative ranges for all occasions to more than 40,000 retailers around the world.

At Amscan we pride ourselves on offering great products at competitive prices, combined with expert advice. We provide a One Stop Shop solution across the three main categories of party, balloons and costumes totalling over 12,000 products in the UK.

Our aim is to be the market leader in the Party, Balloon and Dress Up categories, the best product, the best service, the best place to work!

THE ROLE

We are looking for a Health & Safety Co-ordinator to join our Milton Keynes based business.

This is an exciting opportunity to join the warehouse team providing support to both the Health & Safety function and operational satellite activities. You will work closely with the Health & Safety Manager to achieve sustainable solutions whilst promoting a continuous improvement philosophy. The post holder will deliver effective HS&E induction and refresher training, scope out maintenance and service plans for manual handling equipment and warehouse site services.

The role does have scope for personal training and development growth and is expected that this forms part of a HS&E succession plan.

Does this sound like you? If so, we'd love to hear from you!!

For more information on this role please find the role profile attached

WHAT WE OFFER

You can expect a fun and friendly working environment in the warehouse operations team within a hugely successful business.

Our benefits include 25 days' holiday plus bank holidays, plus your birthday off!; Staff Discount; Company Pension Scheme; Wellness Programme and free Employee Assistance Programme to help support good health and wellbeing and a Bike to Work scheme.

At Amscan, nobody is just a number, you will be joining a team who is enthusiastic to drive success, positive, customer focussed, supportive of each other and knows how to balance hard work with our passion for a party!